

Giannis Matamis
Ms Commerce International des Vins et Spiritueux – ESC Dijon Bourgogne
Universite Dijon France

Giannis Matamis was born in 1985 in Dijon, France and thanks to his father Apostolos Matamis's profession ,he developed, from a very young age, a very good relation with wine knowledge.

In 2009 he graduates from Agriculture University of Thessaloniki and International Higher Certificate in wines and spirits from WSET Awards.

Soon after ,he continues in post graduate studies in Dijon and in 2001 he graduates from ESC Dijon Bourgogne with Master de specialise de Commerce International de Vins et Spiriteaux.

During his studies, he visits more than 150 French and Spanish wine cellars, housing, some of the mostly renown wine names in the field. His specialization studies, take place in the USA.

Today, he continues his postgraduate studies in wine, in university Dijon, in order to put his personal signature in the productive and commercial steps of the MATAMIS company.

